27. DISPUTE RESOLUTION POLICY

27.1 Definitions

The following definitions shall apply in the context of the Dispute Resolution Policy:

“Individuals” – All categories of membership defined in BC Artistic Swimming’s Bylaws, as well as all individuals employed by, or engaged in activities with, BC Artistic Swimming including, but not limited to, athletes, coaches, convenors, referees, officials, volunteers, managers, administrators, committee members, and Directors and Officers of BC Artistic Swimming, spectators, and parents/guardians of athletes

27.2 Purpose

27.2.1 BC Artistic Swimming supports the principles of Alternate Dispute Resolution (ADR) and is committed to the techniques of negotiation, facilitation, and mediation as effective ways to resolve disputes. Alternate Dispute Resolution also avoids the uncertainty, costs, and other negative effects associated with lengthy appeals or complaints, or with litigation.

27.2.2 BC Artistic Swimming encourages all Individuals to communicate openly, collaborate, and use problem-solving and negotiation techniques to resolve their differences. BC Artistic Swimming believes that negotiated settlements are usually preferable to outcomes resolved through other dispute resolution techniques. Negotiated resolutions to disputes with and among Individuals are strongly encouraged.

27.3 Application of this Policy

27.3.1 This Policy applies to all Individuals.

27.3.2 Opportunities for Alternate Dispute Resolution may be pursued at any point in a dispute, per the Discipline and Complaints Policy or the Appeal Policy, when all parties to the dispute agree that such a course of action would be mutually beneficial.

27.4 Facilitation and Mediation

27.4.1 The dispute will first be referred to BC Artistic Swimming’s President (or designate) for review, with the objective of resolving the dispute via Alternate Dispute Resolution and/or mediation.

27.4.2 If all parties to a dispute agree to Alternate Dispute Resolution, a mediator or facilitator, acceptable to all parties, shall be appointed to mediate or facilitate the dispute.

27.4.3 The mediator or facilitator shall decide the format under which the dispute shall be mediated or facilitated, and shall specify a deadline before which the parties must reach a negotiated decision.

27.4.4 Should a negotiated decision be reached, the decision shall be reported to, and approved by, BC Artistic Swimming. Any actions that are to take place as a result of the decision shall be enacted on the timelines specified by the negotiated decision, pending BC Artistic Swimming’s approval.

27.4.5 Should a negotiated decision not be reached by the deadline specified by the mediator or facilitator at the start of the process, or if the parties to the dispute do not agree to Alternate

Dispute Resolution, the dispute shall be considered under the appropriate section of the Appeal Policy or Discipline and Complaints Policy, as applicable.

27.5 Final and Binding

Any negotiated decision will be binding on the parties. Negotiated decisions may not be appealed.
